

Noticeboard

● A DRIVING instructor has one 'L' of a record with a family after helping all four children pass their test.

Over the past nine years, Tony Mills has helped teach the Mayers family, who live on Windermere Road in the Lakes Estate in Handforth, get their full licence. He has taught Gemma, 25, Lee, 23, Amy, 20, and Danny, 17, to drive.

They are among 567 pupils who Tony, who runs YoLoni driving tuition, has helped pass their test in the last 12 years.

Tony said: "I became a driving instructor for a new challenge and the one on one teaching with people. It's a great feeling of achievement teaching someone from not knowing anything about driving a car to passing their test.

"It has been my mission to pass all the Mayer children, but the door will always be open for the next generation."